Reflection:
A reflected image;
mental consideration;
contemplation;
also
a conclusion reached
after much thought

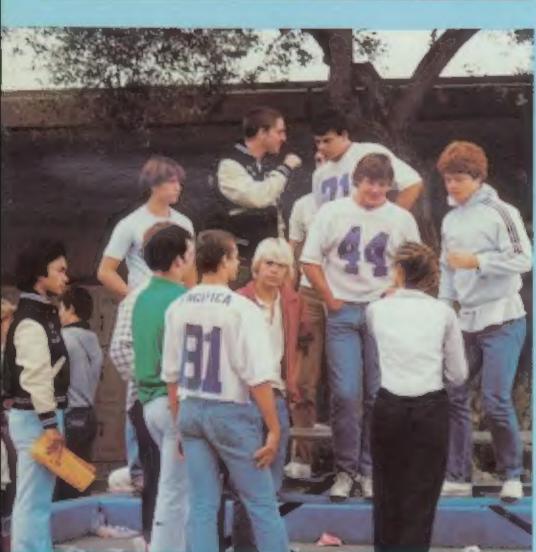

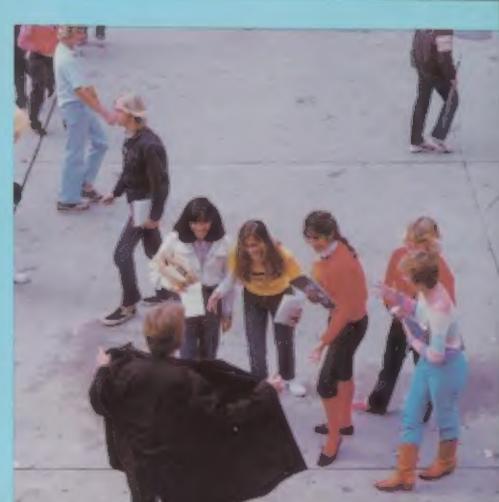

We've come so far, and yet we've only just begun. There's a whole new world we have yet to explore.

We think we know everything that there is to know, when in reality, we know so little.

Now is the time to start thinking
about the future,
because the decisions
we make today
will reflect on our actions tomorrow.

In the years to come, We'll look back on high school and reminisce on all the good times that we had.

The Proms, homecomings, pep assemblies, and football games will only be images, blurry visions of the past.

We'll reflect on our achievements and we'll try to learn from our mistakes

We'll never forget our friends who were always there to listen, to give us advice, and to help us through our most difficult moments They shared our joys, our fears, our dreams, and they put up with our craziest of moods.

We'll always_remember our last three years and the good times that we shared

Still, we look eagerly towards tomorrow and all the things we have yet to experience.

Faces, friends and special times. are only reflections, the mirror images. in our minds.

JAZZ BAND

The Jazz Band had a very busy and exciting year. The members opened the year's performances at Back to School Night and soon found themselves supporting the varsity basketball team at home games. Made up of the more advanced musicians on particular instruments, the group represented Pacifica very well in competition at several jazz festivals, playing jazz standards and new band charts. The year was completed with an exciting performance at the annual spring show

Lunchtime was anyting but dull this year. For the students who stayed on campus, there were many exci ting activities ranging from ice cream feed contests to tourist, army fatigue, and western dress up days. Other activities include the solving the Rubik cube contest, almost anything goes competition, pie eating contest, racquetball tournament, and the iceblock race. Snow was brought to the campus for a snowman building contest, which ended up a snowball fight. However, the activities were still not enough to keep the seniors from using their off-cam pus passes. The thought of having good hot lunch at one of the local fast food restaurants was too much of a temptation

Pacifica's production of "Wait Until Dark" was an exercise in theatrical terror. The plot revolved around a blind woman named Suzi who unwittingly came into possession of a musical doll that contained several kilos of heroin. An unscrupulous thug called Roat enlisted the help of two small time con men in an attempt to coerce Suzi into handing the doll over to them, to no avail. A jealous nine year old girl had stolen the doll. By the time that the doll was back in Suzi's possession, she was aware of who the three men were, and understood why the doll was so important to them. Bravely Suzi decided to keep the doll out of the criminal's hands. This set the stage for a suspenseful life or death confrontation between Roat and Suzi that took place in almost complete darkness

Mr. Hickman

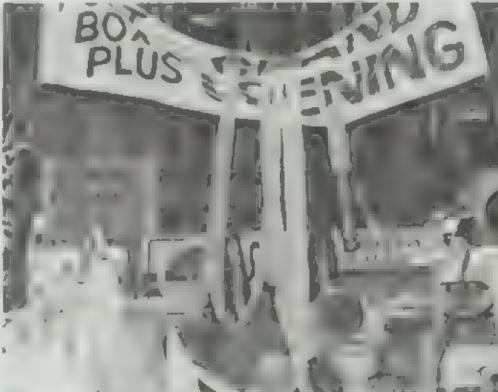

Once again this year the Pep Assemblies produced the spirit and enthusiasm that led to our victories in the many games and events our athletes participated in. Led by the zany antics of ASB officers Todd Tatham and Curt Cummings, among others, the student body's participation in the assemblies was fantastic. Participation reached to such a peek in these rallies that a few special cheering groups were formed, such as "Furry's Flames", and the "Osterode-to-Brummett fan club." Class competitions also provided excitement for the classes, as did the performances by the cheerleaders, drill team and tall flags

SPIRIT WEEK

This year's spirit week activities, competitions, and events were well supported by the student body. There was great participation in the dress up days and class competitions which created a feverish atmosphere of school spirit here at Pacifica. Spirit week was brought to a peak on Friday morning, as well as Thursday night, of course, with the lawn decoration Aside from the controversy surrounding the event, it added to the excitement of what spirit week is all about

THE INVISIBLE THIEF

Time, the hidden, silent foe, how fast it passes, few really know.

When we were young, we did truly believe, that all wasted years, were ours to retrieve.

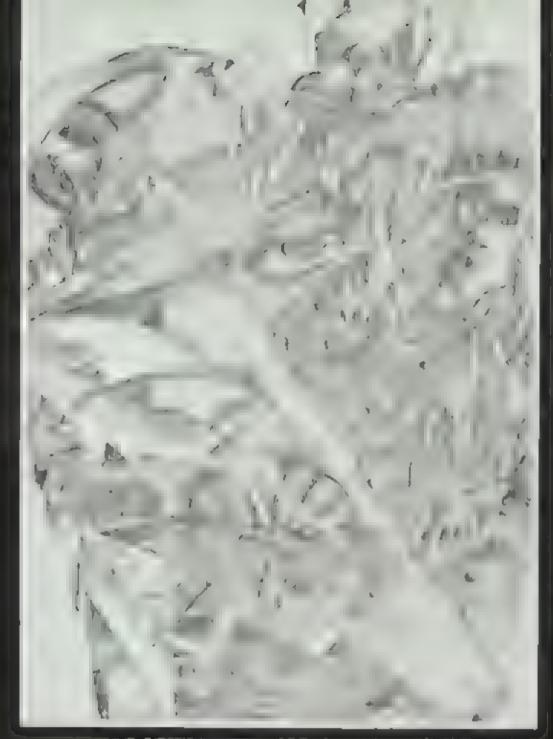

But how wrong we were in our misguided belief. Back then we knew not of the Invisible Thief.

The Invisible Thief, with a merciless blow, cuts away at our years with his swift stiletto.

We spead all our years seeking trivial things, without really feeling the joy that life brings

So remember, my friend, mext time you flaunt fate, that the Invisite Thief will not for you wait.

Let The World Know

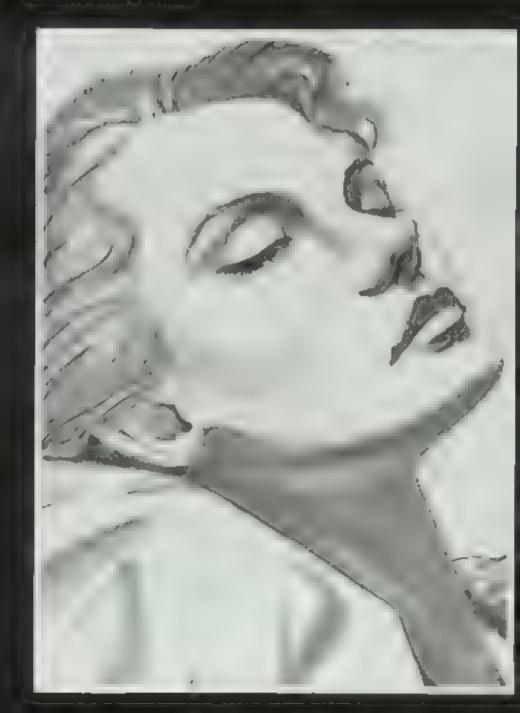

On faded paths we travel: forgetting on the way what makes life worth living what gets us through the day. We see ourselves as strangers: not knowing who we are: everything becomes routine and the distance twice as far. On and on we travel our destiny unknown all the dreary hardships beginning to be shown: step by step we drag our feet; and never stop to rest we take what comes, we take it all settling for second best Now it's time to stop 1 open your eyes and look around recognize what you have passed stop looking at the ground fill your heart with wonder let it overflow i stop taking things for granted let the world know. Let them know we're ready to lift our eyes and seed the things that we've been missing the things that set us free:

THE SECOND COMING

Many people believe
That It's too late
They can't get free or man
So they preach war and hate

You key to help Those people of sin But they turn their backs And they won't let Him in

Thousands of people Are searching to find A crystal vision That's in their mind

Many people think Our minds are lost They can't believe He died on the cross

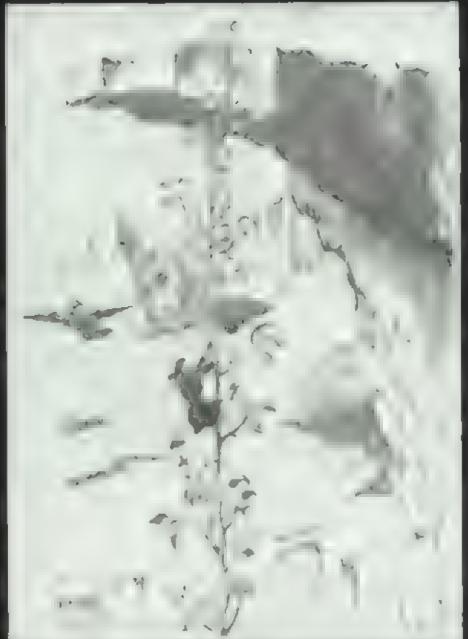

They can't believe Our day is near They think their invincible. They've nothing to fear

On the final day
He'll be coming back
The sinners will lose
Because of the loss they lack

MARINERS WIN EMPIRE LEAGUE TITLE 1

The mighty Mariner football team, led by Coach Craven, faced a tough challenge ahead at the outset of the 1981 season. No longer did they compete in the Garden. Grove I carne, which they had dominated for ten years. This year it was the Empire League, along with the likes. of county powers Esperanza, Loara, El Dorado, Cypress, and Kennedy. Many predicted the Mariners to finish as: low as sixth in a field of eight. But behind the experienced and skilled coaching of Craven, a strong running game, and an imposing "crunch bunch" defense, the Mariner machine proved the experts wrong. The mariner pride shone through as the gridmen fattled off four wins straight, then finished with a 10-2 record. The only setbacks from the sparkling season were at the hands of league co-champion El Dorado, and the Villa Park Spartans in C.E.E.

The Mariners' impressive offensive performances canbe attributed to the strong offensive line led by aleaguers John VanZanten and Rob Glisson. The line opened the holes for speedy ballcarriers. Mike Candeza and Jeff Ross, and provided super protection for quarter back Jeff Osterode. The defense was spearheaded by lineman Wall Pederson and linebacker M ke Adelman ilong with a supporting cast of Pat Ogle, Don Whitselind Frie Sibby, among others

championship will be within reach in the seasons ahead

Newcomers Karl Greene and Bill Long, both recruits off of the track and field team, had the difficult task of coverting from high jumps and short distances to the long, enduring distances, which they handled very well. Greene and Long, who were the numbers four and five men, respectively, will also be returning next season Seniors Wayne Milho and William Mitho provided the little experience there was, while team captain Todd Tatham provided leadership and rounded out the squad

TRACK & FIELD

The Mariner Track Team got off to a fresh start in the Empire League this year. The Varsity Squad performed strongly in the hurdles, led by Senior Mike Martin and sophomore Steve Reynolds. Alan Callaway (senior) went for a new school record in the high jump this season Other leading spikers were: John VanDam and Alan Darien (sprints); Kelly Bengford and Eric Weisbender (throws); Greg Kriesel and Luis Garcia (distances)

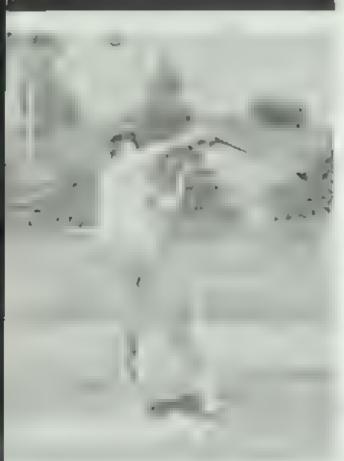

The Frosh/Soph team had a very strong showing led by school record holders Mitch Johnson (throws); Dave Bradley (220/440), Duke Fuller (jumps), and Greg King (distances) Sprinter Neal Dalrymple and pole vaulter Derek Martini were also instrumental to the Mariners. The Frosh-/Soph squad holds the key to future league championships for Pacifica

SOCCER SHOOTS FOR A 2ND C | F. TITLE

Two years ago Pacifica Soccer earned the school it's first C.I.F. Championship under the guidance of Coach George Terlaak. This year the former C.I.F. "Coach of the Year," returned to coach the Mariner Soccer Squad as they gunned for another successful season

Last years varsity squad of underclassmen who returned again this year, were barely affected by graduation. Leading the Mariners were all league performers Jim Engels, Nico Petesch and Glenn Mayer With Greg Alee, Dave Micus, Steve Fosmire, Randy LePore and Don Mahoney all playing key roles

Helping Terlaak, this year, with the coaching duties were former players Jay Sheed, in charge of the J.V.'s and Mike Erickson, coaching Frosh-Soph. The experience of this years squad of returning lettermen and the leadership of Terlaak were sure to give headaches to the rest of the Empire League

This past season the Mariner wrestling team enjoyed the tough competition of the Empire League. The Mariners finished the season with eight wins and four losses. Outstanding individuals for the Marinera were Brian Solo. Steve Britland, John Ingram, Kurt Schneider, Chris Brito, Mike Lee, Gus Luna, Clint Price, Steve Harmon, Terry Morgan, Brian Taylor, Bill Carter and Jay Webster

Throughout the season the Mariners placed individuals in some of the hardest tournaments in our area. In the Empire League finals the Mariner grapplers staged an overwhelming performance by placing many individuals. Thus several individuals qualified to CIF Congratulations Pacifica Wrestling

Coach Malmquist discusses strategy

The Pacifica basketball program took a turn for the better in the 1981-82 season. All four teams have compiled winning records, including the varsity, who were victorious in eight of their first twelve contests. The varsity squad's lone weakness was height, as their tailest starter barely stood 6'2" tall. But they made up for it in team quickness and unity. The Mariners would employ a tenacious press to force opponent's turnovers, then use a lightning-quick fast break to capitalize on their speed advantage. The Mariner fast break was led by point guard Mike Ferrin, while Jon Nagel and Ed Brummett provided the outside shooting. Walt Blakely and Todd Henson added the muscle on the boards, while Tom Koos, Dave Morse, and Rob Glisson provided the depth that every good team needs coming off the bench

The JV basketball team, coached by Rhett Heckel, had a great start and has compiled a fine record. Led by starters Bill Long, Brad Schneider, Bruce Swerdfeger, Mark Bradley and Jerry Crowell, they won the Garden Grove tournament, were runners-up in the Santa Ana tournament, and won four of their first seven league games. Their leading scorers were Mark Bradley and Brad Schneider, while Bill Long led in assists

The Sophomores, while finding it hard to keep up the superb sophomore tradition, had a fine season anyway. Third-year Coach Marty Mikkelsen possessed a team with much depth and few stars. This team balance resulted in five victories in seven league games. The team was led by the three big men, Mitch Johnson, Tony Ledesma, and David Bradley. Joe Sakamoto and Jeff Carlson provided the ballhandling and outside shooting

Rob G sson follows through on a smooth delivers

The 1982 Pacifica diamondmen faced many tough challenges during the sprin season. Re-aligned into what other coaches described as "the best baseball league in the county, no question" it was evident that the Mariners would be tested this season. But, because of the masterful coaching of Myron Pines and the fact that the Mariners have nine players with previous varsity experience, they were counted on as sure contenders, while some coaches called them the team to beat

The team didn't apparently possess any evident strengths or weaknesses, yet its depth and balance provided for an overall sound ballelub. If there was a strength though, it would have to be pitching. Rob Glisson and Jeff Osterode, both starters for the 1981 squad, returned to form a strong starting nucleus. The infield was manned by returners Pat Ogle at third, Mike Ferrin at short. Don Whitsel at second, while Glenn Mayer and John Kopaczewski split time at first base. Junior Brad Schneider also saw time at second base to accomodate Whitsel's wish to play the outfield. The outfield was patrolled by newcomers Walt Foley, Mark Bradley, Scott Marskell, and Walt Blakely while Brian Flatten did the catching with Scott Von Eps backing him up. Asof this writing the club had compiled a 5-2 record, which included wins over Servite, Los Al, and previously unbeaten county power Edison. With continued improvement, a league championship should be within reach

These few were the varsity teams own Karen Knobloch, Kim Norton, while on the J.V. team there was Melanie Concepcion.

Although their hard work and dedication did not pay off as well as they had hoped, they had fun and perfected their moves

Our program at Pacifica would be somewhat lacking without the Sophomore Class Officers. With each new school year the Sophomore Class Officers change but the dedication and enthasiasm that radiates from these members never varies. The Sophomore Class Officers pictured above are from eff to right. Top row Kisten Yuki, Ronda Nawander Greg Pate, and Anna Rosado, Bottom row; Eva Schultz and Cathy Roberts

Lach and every Sophomore Class Officer wishes each of you the best. We are confident in the ability of the Sophomore Class to take us to the top and make us all proud to be Mariners.

FRESHMAN FLASH

Being a freshmen here at Pacifica is supposed to be the worst thing that ever happened. Well it really isn't all that bad. The older students, such as seniors are supposed to treat us like dirt. It isn't that way, though. The only disadvantages of being a freshmen are that we didn't get to be the head honchos in ninth grade. Instead we get to be the little people, low man on the totem pole, germs, scrubs, to name but a few. But the class of 85 will and can survive

TOMMYEG JURAN

When looking back at this past year spent with the "Reef" staff, all I can see are cluttered, hazy, blurs of the events that shaped this years "Reef". Time moves so quickly, I can't seem to grasp a full picture of everything in my mind. The memories of hectic deadlines and frantic fits lose their color and intensity with each passing day. The times spent teary eyed and discouraged have little meaning now. The year-book is done. There is no need to remember the bad, other than to recognize the good. The happy memories surround me with a glow of warmth like a halo of emotions still being felt.

A special bond is built between people who have a common cause to do something which is important to each individual. We all shared the joys and pains of being a staff member. I often felt like a mother nagging at her children and complaining when the job wasn't done to the highest possible standard. I didn't do this to be mean; I just wanted each staff member to reach his or her's highest potential. I hope they forgive me if I pushed too hard or not hard enough

I have probably felt just about every emotion there is in life. Being yearbook editor is like getting a chance to have a free sample of life in the "real world," without actually having to go out there. I feel fortunate I have had the chance to experience all I did. It gave me a better perspective of who I am and where I wanted to go

I couldn't have made it through this year without a few special people in my life feeding me encouragement to keep me going. I thank my family for understanding and stepping out of the way when I had the "deadline blahs". A smile goes out to all my friends who cheered me up with a grin and a word or two, when I was down. A handshake and a pat on the back goes to Lezlie Gibbs for doing a terrific job as the other co-editor. We complemented each other's talents very well. A very special thanks and a hug goes to Mary Ann Thompson for being my closest "right brained" buddy and for giving me advice when I needed it

I hope I have achieved my goal to help make the 1981-82 "Reef" a photo album of memories for all the students of Pacifica to enjoy for a long time to come

LEZLIE GIBBS

Wow! It's over. I can't believe I made it through the year in one piece without losing my sanity completely. Although, for a while I had my doubts. It started out easy enough. Everything seemed to be running along smoothly. But then it came, our first deadline, and I found out what being an editor was all about. It wasn't going to be as easy as I thought. There were a lot of long hours and headaches involved. Tommye, Mrs Thompson, and I quickly got to know each other very well Amazingly enough, we made it through the first deadline. And with the help of a great, wild and crazy staff, we made it through the rest. Although, I couldn't have done it without Mike Campion and my mom there to give me love, support, understanding, advice, pep talks, and a shoulder to cry on Well, it's finished, and all the hard work payed off Good luck to everybody. God Bless ya

God Bless
